

Meinhardt Raabe Memorial Miniature Golf Tournament

This miniature golf tournament is named in honor of Meinhardt Raabe, the person who portrayed the Coroner in the Wizard of Oz. A traveling trophy was prepared by Garry Peterson, Past-President of NAME, and is a glass and wood case containing a likeness of the Coroner himself. Bob Belding, a member of NAME, organizes the event. The inaugural tournament, held at a "Glow Ball" course at Oprey Mall (Nashville), was played on September 12, 2004.

The 2007 Meinhardt Raabe Memorial Miniature Golf Classic will be held in Savannah, GA on Sunday, October 14 at a time to be determined later.

Yearly winners are listed below:

2004: "Glow Ball" course, Oprey Mall, Nashville. Dr. Jeff Lee (+2)
