News You Can Use

This is a publication to keep you informed of issues and events pertaining to the osteopathic profession in Washington. We invite you to submit topics or articles of interest to your colleagues for consideration. Submissions may be emailed to executivedirector@woma.org

WOMA's New Website to Debut in November

WOMA has been working on a new and improved website. A preview was available at the 2018 Convention. If you are a WOMA member, please check your file in our database to make sure all contact information is correct for the new Find a DO online directory. Go to www.woma.org and log in to your account, select the Your Profile tab under the Membership tab to check and edit information.

If you have any questions or need help, please contact Hayley Griffin at hgriffin@woma.org

Save the Date

DO Day in Olympia is Tuesday February, 26, 2019. Online registration will be available on the new WOMA website when it is up and running.

Northwest Osteopathic Medical Foundation Announces President Elect for 2018/19

It is our distinct pleasure to announce that Katina Rue, DO has been elected to the position of President Elect for the 2018/19 term.

Dr. Rue has been a board member for 4 years, and is the Associate Program Director in Family Medicine at Central Washington Family Medicine Residency. She is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Washington State Medical Association, and active with the Washington Osteopathic Medical Association CME Program Committee.

On Demand CME Available through InReach

If you were not able to attend the WOMA Convention in person or by live stream, you can still support WOMA and earn a limited number of 1-A credits from that program by attending the online sessions available at DOCME InReach.
